Col. Henry E McCulloch

Dear Sir

I take the liberty of troubling you with an enquiry - & hope I shall not thereby encroach too much upon your time; which I am well aware must be fully occupied -

I wish to be appointed Surgeon to some Texas Regiment & believe the nomination must come from the Colonel. I am unable to find out here at this distance what vacancies exist in the Medical Corps. and therefore request of you to take my case into consideration & do what you may think proper in the premises I am willing to serve in any Regiment - (as Regimental Surgeon) stationed in Texas My preference for Texas is influenced by my wifes wishes (she being a Texas. - formerly Miss Holmes of Austin) —

I graduated in Medicine at the University of Louisiana in 1856 - & previous to my accepting a Commission in the Texas Geological Survey - in 1858 - had wards in the Charity Hospital of this City for a year. - in fact I resigned them in order to join the survey -

I can send you letters of recommendation from eminent Physicians of this City — & will do so if you notify me of any vacancy for which I may apply —
Do not allow me to intrude too much upon your time — or trespass upon your kindness — but if your presence & intimate connection with such matters there enables you to serve me you will place me under lasting obligations

Respectfully

Office of Medical Director & Purveyor
Dept of Texas
San Antonio, July 9th 1862

Sir,

In compliance with your instructions to report upon the matters referred to in the communication of Surgeon W. S. Riddell, I beg leave to state, that between the 10th and 18th of June 1862, I issued to the Regiment referred to in his communication Medical Supplies in quantities deemed amply sufficient to last until the 30th of September.

Morphine, Quinine and Tannin, and some other articles embraced on the supply table were not issued in full quantities, for the reason that they were not to be obtained in the country.

A portion of the Regiments referred to in the letter of Dr. Riddell, were very amply supplied. Col. Flournoy's Regiment purchased in addition to the supplies furnished by the Purveyor, a full supply for twelve months. Wallen's Battalion & Wards Legion were also amply supplied with all articles that could be obtained.

Capt. Wilson's Company, were not furnished with Medicines for the reason that no requisition was made for them,

I however at the request of Capt Wilson prepared for him a Medicine Chest, which will be forwarded by the first wagon that leave for Houston.

For the convenience of distributing Medical supplies I respectfully suggest to the General Commanding the propriety of assigning an officer to duty as Medical Purveyor for the Galveston & Houston Military District; I would suggest the name of Surgeon Henry Shearer for the position. He being the senior Medical officer in the District.

Dr. Reddell states in his letter that he has made this communication by request of unmentioned parties, I would respectfully suggest that it is not contemplated to be any part of the duty of the Surgeon in charge of the Gen. Hospital at Houston, to furnish Regiments with Medical Supplies, and all communications upon that subject should first be submitted to this Office.

I have the honor to be

Your very Respectfully

Comdg. at Camp Lee

Dear Sir -

I write to ascertain whether employment can be given a Drill Master at the Post you Command, & if so, whether you can recommend my son, John T. Riddick, for the position.

His qualification may be inferred from the facts stated in the accompanying recommendation to the Secy of State, signed by Hon: J. R. Chambliss of the No. of ~~Delegates~~ Representatives, & others.

As the Institute, he is not liable to military duty, but seeks to enter it from a desire to render some service to our cause.

I should not expect dual employment, as that would, you may now give him, to be permanent. Should there are many Vig.t Companies - especially in the 7th & 8th Regts would, one or two of them each be willing to [illegible] assigned to one of them, or elsewhere as you determine.

Very Respectfully
Your Obt. Servt

Captain:

In pursuance of the requirements of Capt. H. C. Pratt A.A.G. I respectfully forward to you the following report of the operations of the Bureau of Conscription in the State of Virginia, since the organization of the Bureau (Nov. 1862) and during the present year.

The Bureau was organized under the provisions of the Act of Congress of Oct 11th 1862, and the duties assigned to it were to enroll all persons between the ages of 18 & 45 years, liable to military service, and to detail such persons as were exempted by the provisions of the Act, for the performance of certain civil duties, required by the Government.

The Bureau was organized with a Chief Conscript Officer, and such assistants as were necessary for the proper discharge of the duties assigned to it. The Chief Conscript Officer was directly responsible to the Secretary of War, and received his instructions from him.

The State was divided into districts, each district being placed under the charge of a Conscript Officer, who was directly responsible to the Chief Conscript Officer for the faithful discharge of the duties assigned to him.

The Chief Conscript Officer was required to report to the Secretary of War, the progress of the enrollment, and all accidents of war, in the form of casualties, that occurred among the enrolling officers, and to report to me, from time to time, the number of Conscripts, and Deserters arrested, and delivered to the proper authorities.

The Chief Conscript Officer was required to report to me

I would respectfully state that I have been in service since the beginning of hostilities first as a Lieutenant of Artillery in a Company organized during the early part of the month of May, 1861, in Mecklenburg County, Va, & then as Commissary mustered into service until the month of June 1862 & continued in that capacity until the 21st of October 1861: when I was made a Captain in the A.C.S. Quartermasters Department, and ordered to report for duty to Brig Genl. Blanchard: that I served as such in the field in the field in the Dept of Norfolk, and in the neighborhood of Richmond, where during the battle of the 'Seven Pines' (Saturday) having been ordered to get a battery in position, I received a wound from the kick of a horse(s) being attached to said Battery - fracturing one of the bones of my left leg, and disabling me for several weeks. Being again fit for duty I was ordered to report to Brig. Genl. Blanchard, who had been sent to Western Louisiana, where I remained until he was relieved, when I was temporarily placed in command of the Camp of Instruction, then at Monroe, Louisiana. Being relieved from this command,

Richmond, Jan 18. 1865.

Major A. H. Cole

Chief Inspector Ic ve

Dear Major,

Allow me to bring to your notice the case of our young friend Randolph Ridgely.

As you know he volunteered, before he was eighteen years of age, and served as a private through the Battles of Fredericksburg, Chancellorsville, Gettysburg, and the many minor Senior actions, gaining the commendations of Generals Ewell and Early.

He then became Aid to Gen J. M. Jones, and so served until that Officer was killed, and with marked zeal and gallantry.

He then was taken on Gen Ramseur's Staff, and served with his usual gallantry in that position. In Ramseur's fights in the Valley he was severely wounded (had his thigh fractured) & fell into the hands of the enemy - again came within our lines when Gen Early recaptured Winchester. Since that time he has been unfit for service, recovering from his wounds, and although he will be again fit for duty (possibly) he will be a cripple for life, one leg shorter by several inches than the other.

Upon application at the Adjutant-General's Office I find that he is "out of the service" from Jones' death.

Ramseur applied for his appointment upon his Staff, but it was never made. I think this was because there was no proper vacancy at this time.

At any rate it turns out that young Ridgely while actually fighting most bravely & desperately wounded was not in the service properly at all.

Now he is crippled, for as yet but for light duty. Sherman destroyed the property from which he might have derived support in Georgia, and he is now dependent upon his step-father, who hiring upon pay of a Surgeon can ill afford to support him.

Can nothing be done for him?

Very truly &c

Dear Sir

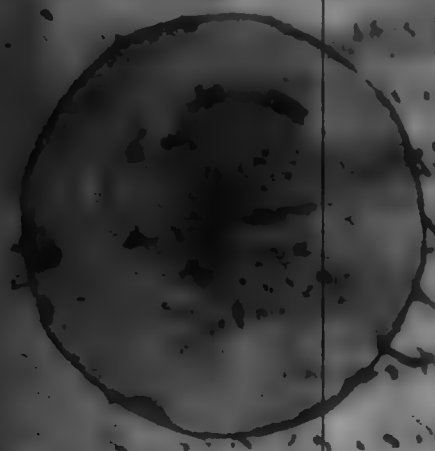

I send you direct Affidavit & a Granted Reward for lost Reports to explain my delay in not sending in my Returns. I have been so much on the move there & myself of the most I have had not time to fix up the Reports & send them on to you. As soon as I got an opportunity I ordered them to me & they were lost by the Express Co. I regret this very much indeed. every effort is being made to recover them. You will remember if you kept a memorandum of Official matters that I had sent in my Reports Monthly & Quarterly to you. but them to you in fact I you required one to Consolidate the Count of Stores received for the Quarter, as the only ~~as the only~~ Correction you required that was for your Commissions in Examination. Sometime after arrival in June I think you sent them all back to me. one had not been Signed & the Hospital Return had been made out informally Requisitions had been made for the Sick in Bulk (all Hands saw) & the issues were entered in that way instead of by Rations There were no Count issues in any of my Reports. I had a Gain each month in issues which there any case The expenditures had also been accounted whenever you perceive the necessity of instituting some measures, in cases similar to that of the

You are directed to allow

The Major General Comd'g directs that you use make unusual efforts to attain information of the enemy.

He wishes you to send out scouts and small parties, pushing them as far as can be done with safety & making any disposition to ascertain and communicate rapidly to these Head Quarters, all important information.

He desires that if possible, you will send one or more trusty scouts into Gloucester and see if anything can be learned in that direction, The enemy may be on the eve of changing his base of operations, and it is all important that we should be exceedingly vigilant, so as to be informed of his every movements at the very earliest moment.

Received Sept. 15th 1866.

(Circular.)

District Head Quarters,
Richmond, Va. Dec. 16, 1862.

General:

As a precaution against the introduction of Small pox, (which is now prevailing in Richmond,) among the troops, the Major General Commanding directs that for the present, indiscriminate visits to the City cease; and he requests, therefore, that you will discontinue to forward for approval, all applications for this purpose, which are not urgent and meritorious in their nature. This order, however, is not intended to embrace those officers or men who are required to pass to and from Richmond in the discharge of their appropriate duties, and who have received a general pass for this purpose.

The unusual activity, which the enemy is exhibiting,- threatening at various points, is an additional reason for this restriction. All should constantly be at their posts, ready for any emergency.

The Maj. Gen. Comdg requests that you will make enquiry and ascertain if there is a first-rate clerk in your command, as the services of one, who is intelligent, rapid and a good penman are urgently needed. If there be such an one, who is willing to accept the position, will you be kind enough to furnish his name in order that he be detailed. If equal in other qualifications, it would be preferable to select one who is delicate and not likely to stand the exposure of winter.

The General dislikes very much to make details, especially if the party be hale & hearty, but the work in the office is at present so much delayed that this request is rendered absolutely necessary.

General:

The Maj. Genl. Comdg. directs me to say, in answer to your application for printed forms for Company morning reports, that the matter was referred to Maj. Lowe, Chf Qr. Mr., who replies that if the Brigade Qr. Mr. will make a requisition on him or Col. Smith, the A. A. G. General, that all the blanks you need will be furnished. It seems that the Department has established the rule to supply these articles to Brigade Qr. Mrs. only, and not this Commanders of Departments and Districts as formerly. Field Returns, however, will always be furnished from these Head Quarters, upon application.

Despatches were regularly rec'd at Col. Smith's office from your scouts in Matthews and Gloucester counties. They appear to be constantly on the alert and will no doubt keep us apprised of all movements of the enemy within the sphere of their operations.

I have just received a letter from Capt. Humphries - Ordnance Officer, Columbia, stating that it will be necessary, for you to know at what time twice and the Black Cartridges" he the steps paid you for - Wishing you to communicate with him concerning the same -

The cartridges (I suppose you may mean) are to be used in a Chambarty for the purpose of exercising the troops of this Corps - Upon receipt of the cartridges I will of course depend upon the Capt. Humphries to endeavor to procure the Cartridges as soon as possible - the time of their arrival (the weather permitting) will inaugurate the drill -

You must excuse me for troubling you so much concerning a matter so apparently trivial, but the Genl has his mind set upon it, all I can do is to obey - If you can give me any intimation as to the time you can furnish the cartridges, you will greatly oblige

Colonel,

In reply to your communication of the 29th enclosing a letter from Col Gorgas and requesting my views on the subject of Fair Oaks - I would respectfully suggest that in each Division has a park - there would be no possible use for one for the Corps - but as the amount of transportation, workmen, tools &c would necessarily be much greater if one were allowed to each Division - I would respectfully state that in my opinion one Corps Fair Park would be sufficient

I will send names of men - requisitions for necessary tools as soon as possible

Very Respectfully

Colonel.

Your order of the 9th inst. was received, enclosing a letter from Col. Gorgas, Chief of Ordnance, C.S.A. relating to the method of putting up cartridges, & requesting my observations on the subject.

From the experience I have had in the field, I have observed a great waste of Cartridges in transporting them in Cartridge Boxes, on account of the little protection the powder receives, in the cartridges manufactured in the C.S. Laboratories. Col. Gorgas' suggested method of adopting the Enfield manner of preparing all elongated cartridges, will, to a great degree, if not entirely prevent the destruction of cartridges in the ordinary transportation.

In conclusion I would respectfully call your attention to the fact that while it is the intention in the Enfield Cartridges for the ball to enter with the paper on, from the general calibre of the balls in the Enfield Rifle cartridges heretofore furnished this army, it not only is requisite to remove the paper, but even with this removal the ball sometimes refuses to enter the bore. I cannot but think that the want of distinction between the Enfield & Springfield Rifles, in the preparations of this ammunition, is the cause.

I have the honor to remain Colonel
Very Respectfully

Pardon my troubling you with my correspondence - but a knowledge that our affairs at the seat of Government, are too apt to be 'pigeon-holed' unless urged by some one on the spot has induced me to solicit what aid you could afford me - in forcing my claims upon the Adjt Genl. with the reasons etc

My object is increase of rank - I was a 2d Lt in the U. S. Army & as the same may be pursued in this; although the Government was

Orders were issued in Chattanooga before the battle of Chickamauga that requisitions made for arms & ammunition who actually carried guns into the fights should be included in the number required - the left out all men in the Infantry Corps teamsters etc not requiring arms -

Will you please inform me whether that order is still in force. If the order has been countermanded it will lead to a great saving of arms - as the ordnance wagons which now carry 15 boxes of ammunition will either have to carry the arms of those details not going into the fights or they will have to be abandoned at the forefront of a battle.

I hope soon to be able to furnish you with the reports of the late battle & the return of Ordnance Officers of this Corps

Will you please let me know if stores are to be included in the effective rolls of commands or not. Respectfully

Sir

I beg leave to acquaint you of my late Father's decease which took place on the 29th ult. after a long & painful illness, & to request a furlough of Thirty days to arrange my private affairs & settle the concerns of my family. I am in the Provincial Army - Should your Excellency grant me this request I would not trouble you for a temporary rank in the Provincial Army but that I feel that justice to myself demands that I should have a rank equal to my services in that respect as regards my regular rank in the Army. I have the honor to enclose you a regular Certificate of the Date of my Commission & of the several offices which I have held in the Militia of this Province, from the time I was appointed to the command of a Company of Volunteers (all my family connections being Loyalists) for the Defence of this Province, up to the present time, which I trust will be sufficient to shew that I have not been unmindful of my duty to my King & Country. Colonel,

The portion of our line vacated by Maj Gen Cheatham during is situated as to mask the enemy to approach it very closely under cover of darkness. I have been ordered by Lt Gen Hardee at the suggestion of Maj Gen Cheatham to have some fire balls kept on hand - to enable him to light up the ground in front of his line when necessary. It is impossible to get them up here - on account of want of material & proper facilities. Can you possibly have 20 or 30 manufactured immediately for me. I can obtain plenty of turpentine - but lack the means of procuring the other ingredients. If you should have the turpentine to spare and could send it. Please inform me when you can gratify me.

Proceedings of the Board of Ordnance convened by virtue of Special Order No 39. Dept Head Qrs Army of Tenn. Feby 14. 1863 for the purpose of examining into and reporting upon the Ammunition furnished for the Enfield Rifles. Caliber .577

Tuesday Feby 17th The board met in compliance with the above order, but, in consequence of the inclemency of the weather adjourned tile next day at 10 o'clock A.M.

Wednesday Feb 18th. The board met in pursuance of adjournment, but the weather being still inclement adjourned till next day at 10 A.M.

Thursday Febry 19th The board met again in pursuance of adjournment, all the members being present
The kind of Cartridges were presented to the Board for trial.
The Cartridges manufactured at Atlanta Arsenal, Ga and as now furnished at Charleston Arsenal, The English Enfield Rifle Cartridges. The Cartridges as manufactured at this Country are labelled Caliber 58, whilst the English Cartridges are labelled Caliber .577 In examination the Cartridges appears to be of the same diameter though the English Cartridge Ball being pressed more compressed are more easily loaded than our own. Our Cartridge ball being Conical & thus swaged on a die presents more irregularities of surface and consequently more easily clogged.

The Atlanta Arsenal Cartridges presented a more uniform surface & smoother than the Charleston Cartridges while the Powder used in the Atlanta Cartridges, was of the common rifle powder, that of the Charleston Cartridges being very fine rifle powder. The powder used in the English Cartridges was rifle powder, but appeared to be of much better quality than our, being more highly glazed and of a grain more regular and even grain.

Owing to the prevalence of a high wind the target used by the Board was placed only at 150 Yards distance in order that it might catch all the balls as many as possible in order to determine the approximate accuracy of the different balls shot from the same gun and also to see in what manner the balls struck, whether point foremost or sideway &c.

Twenty five shots were fired altogether.

The proper method ascertain the diagram of the target with any number of shots, to suit the. Four only have diameters. Three from the Charleston Cartridges, one from the Atlanta Cartridges. But when English Cartridges were fired, three inches target. The English Cartridges were fired from the gun that had already been fired 45 times, in order to see, if it would clog the gun. We sufficiently as we were experienced in loading.

The Board do therefore arrive at the following opinions in reference to the Cartridges submitted to it for trial.

1st. That the Atlanta Cartridges, are not too large, provided they are well greased, and the proper amount. But as they are now sent up had only few of the Cartridges appear to retain any grease, once in consequence after a few rounds they became difficult to force into the Guns even with the proper off. Another objection is, the want of grease creates considerable decay, in loading, for the paper has then to be torn off with the finger nails instead of slipping off as the ball is inserted, by pressure of the thumb and forefinger.

2° Charleston Cartridges, loads with the paper on is well greased, but after the gun is fired 15 or 20 times, it begins to fit only tightly, and requires considerable exertion to send it home. It is a rougher ball than either of the two others. The powder used is very fine rifle powder. The board is of opinion that only musket powder should be used on account of fouling the guns. Less accuracy was obtained with the Charleston than the other Cartridges. The English Cartridges is less objectionable than either of the others, being put up better in package in order to prevent them from being affected by moisture and the papers (cylinders) being more neatly and strongly made. The ball has the appearance of being made by pressure instead of being cast and is of more uniform density and of smooth exterior.

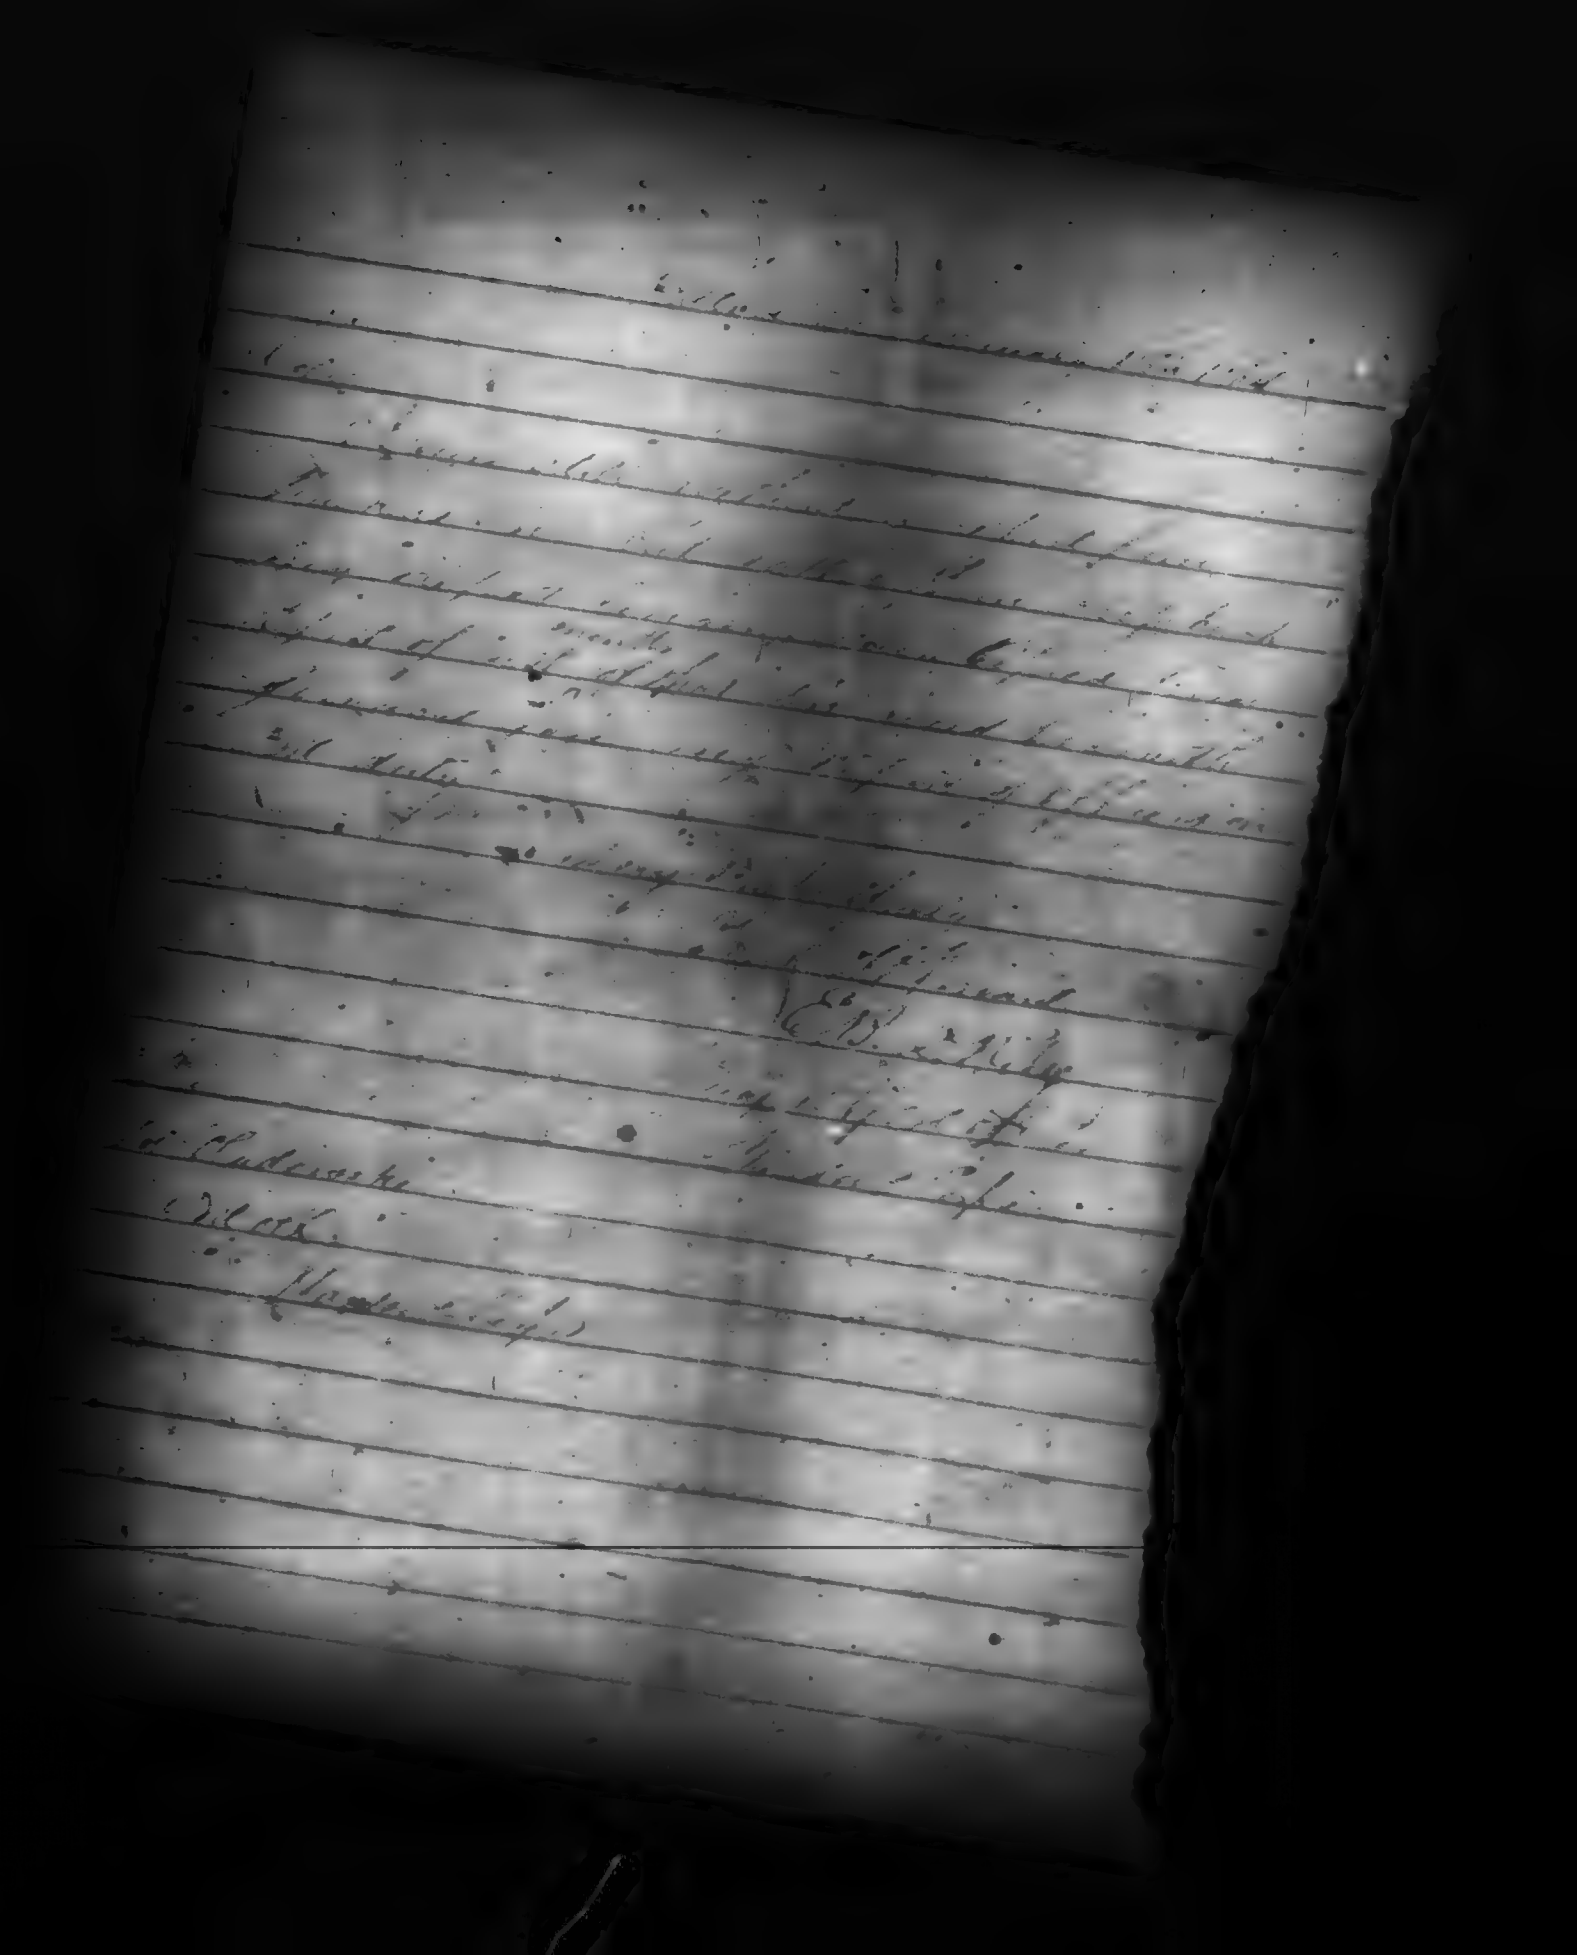

After the gun had been fired 45 times with the Atlanta and Charleston Cartridges and had, consequently become foul it was loaded with English Cartridges 9 times and may be loaded without difficulty. In Benton's Experiments with the American ball the gun used was

Orders were issued in Chattanooga before the battle of Chickamauga that requisitions made for arms &c. only there men who actually carried guns into the fight should be included in the number required. This left out all men in the Infirmary Corps teamsters &c not requiring arms.

Will you please inform me whether that order is still in force. If the order has been countermanded it will lead to a great saving of 15 tons of ammunition which now carries the arms of those details not going into the fight. or they will have to be abandoned at the first pinch of a battle.

I hope soon to be able to furnish you with the report of the late battle & the roster of our officers of this Corps.

Will you please let me know by return of courier whether the details mentioned above are to be included in the effective files of commands or not. Oblige

Ordnance office, Hardee Corps
Dalton, January 24th 1863

Colonel,

I have the honor to submit the following statement.

Requisitions were made some time ago on Lieut. Wright Comdg Atlanta Arsenal for 2.12 Bn Howitzers. Lieut Colonel Ord Chief Ord. Dept. whom I had sent to Atlanta to hasten Artillery requisitions filled, upon application to Lieut Wright was informed by him that he had no guns of that kind at his arsenal & that it would be necessary to send to Augusta or other Arsenals to procure. stating at the same time, that it was necessary that the order for the guns should come from the army. My impression is that an order is extant prohibiting any requisitions to be made by an army on an arsenal without the Department that this army should draw its supplies from the Atlanta Arsenal. in case stores could not be procured there. the Arsenal Commander does make requisitions on other arsenals to supply the deficiency. I would respectfully solicit your opinion in the matter. and your advice how

The discrepancy in the of guns of different calibre received and issued, and also in Artillery Ammunition arises from the fact that in many instances the contents of arm chests & ammunition boxes are not properly marked and invoiced to me

Old boxes are frequently used with a slip of paper lightly tacked in to designate the contents, and if this paper is lost or destroyed the original marks always produce confusion

Meridian Miss - Dany 5th 1865

Major - I have this instant received & have the honor to make the following statement as regards my reasons for not obeying S.O. No 21 & War Dept & S.O. No 52 Military Div. of the West -

When I received the order from the War Department I was at the White Sulphur Springs 34 miles from Columbus Ga. to which place I was furnished transportation to await said order - Upon the receipt of the order I immediately wrote to Lt Col Kinyard Asst Adjt Genl stating him of the order & stating to him that I was at that time unable to travel - but would report to him as soon as possible -

At that date sixty days from the date of the receipt of the order I immediately wrote to Major McCall - Chief of the Dept - explaining to him the circumstances of my not being able to travel - and of my desire to comply with the order - my fault consisted in not procuring a surgeon - and procuring a certificate of disability to travel -

Colonel J. F. Gilmer

C.S. States.

Colonel

In obedience to your communication of the 2d inst relative to the qualifications of Lieut Jenkins and Riley for appointments in Engineer Troops, I have the honor briefly to report the following qualifications. Viz

Lieut Jenkins has the following qualifications. Viz
He thoroughly understands the manufacture of Sand Bags. has superintended for a long time a large Machine Shop. Constructed Sand Bags in making the Survey of Fort Pillow & the neighborhood for a radius of Eight miles he making the Survey while Assistant to the Topographer &c. - Thoroughly understands every thing about building (Timber). Making Roads & approaches to Rivers & Fords. Also all the work connected with the construction of temporary defences. mounting Guns &c. and can make a large force of men has great advantage as any man in the Corps. His only fault is working a bad hand but this is partly owing to the hard work he undertook himself in while employed on works. This would be highly remedial of apprentice a sentiments.

Lieut. Riley is recommended to me very highly as a thorough business man, of excellent education both Mathematical & Classical. Colonel Jesup and Bvt. Maj. Gen. Thomas know him & state that he has very general Field for a long time as Chief Clerk in the Q. M. Gen. Office & Fort Polk Texas. with a splendid hand, and would be a most valuable man for one of the Junior Lieutenants.

I enclose you a letter from Colonel Thos. M. Jesup Q. M. Gen. which will speak for itself. The appointment of such men as Graham, Riley, Cummings, Lindsay, Ford, and Stewart would have a very good effect on the men in the Companies now organized, as it would prove to their Captains & officers that their exertions in their Company & regiment [illegible] & it would also make them believe there was a chance for other good men to get promotion when vacancies occur.

I remain Colonel

Genl.

Some three months ago, at Chattanooga, Capt. E. P. Sayers, of the Engineers, recommended certain parties for commissions in the Engineer troops of Polk's Corps, Army of Tenn- Among others, was Sergt. Edward Riley, of the 1st Ohio- who was warmly endorsed by Genl. Polk. Col. R. H. Brewer and myself also wrote to the Engineer Bureau in his behalf- I presume these papers never reached you- as shortly afterwards I heard of your promotion and transfer- Pardon the liberty I now take General, in calling these facts to your attention- Sergt. Riley is well qualified for the position of Lieut. and if you can secure his appointment from the Bureau you will, in my judgment, promote the public interests and do an act of justice to a worthy young man-

Will you favor me with a reply, care of Genl. Polk, at this place?-

With pleasant recollections of your courtesies of the past,

I am Genl.,

Dear Sir

The undersigned has now been a prisoner in the hands of the Military authorities since Dec. 12. 1861

He was arrested at his home in Graves Co. Ky. and taken to Paducah and told that there was charges against him on which he would be tried, but he utterly denies that he ever violated any law of the U.S. of the state of Ky. either Civil or Military. He repeatedly demanded a trial during the five months he was at Paducah but failed to get an investigation of any kind, during all this time he was on parole and after the surrender of Ft. Donaldson when the Hospitals were crowded with sick & wounded he volunteered his services as Surgeon and gave his services freely and without any remuneration for over two months. in proof of which I can show the certificate of Dr James Simmons to Genl. Hodges now on file at the office of the Pro. Marshal General in this city, on the 7th of May

I was transfered to McDowells Military prison and from them to Alton June 28th from whence I was released on parole July 2d by your order produced by Dr Simmons very partial commendation of me to Genl Wallack—

At all times since my arrest I have tried to conduct myself as a gentleman and have endeavored to give no trouble to any one, but—

As a general exchange is now in progress and by the terms of My parole I am held as a prisoner of war I would respectfully request to be returned as such, (though I have never borne Arms) and would very respectfully request the privilege of a parole to go home for a week and would report myself at Cairo at any specified time to be sent to Vicksburg of Course while at home my parole would be strictly abided by.

If I cannot be regarded as liable to exchange will you please inform me on what terms I can be allowed to go South as My wife and family are in the state of Georgia and I have had no word from them for seven months and am very anxious to rejoin them. I have written this as it will (tho. long) take less of your valuable time than a personal interview. I shall be much pleased if I can get a favorable answer and will call on you tomorrow afternoon with many thanks for your consideration to me heretofore I am

Dear Sir

Though personally a Stranger yet I cannot feel as towards one who as one of the Fathers in the Church of which My Mother lived and died an Member and to which myself & my wife have belonged for over ten years and therefore with confidence as to a friend I apply as to a friend feeling that if it is in your power you will do all that I ask provided I shall be found worthy.

I was arrested the 12th of last Dec. a giving aid & comfort to your army at Columbus and have been kept a prisoner here ever since with no prospect of a release unless I can make myself out a prisoner of war and therefor I apply to you and ask you to procure me an appointment as Surgeon or Apist. Surgeon in the Southern Army. I am really acting in that capacity now as I am assisting Dr Voorhies of Lex. (who was Captured at Fort Henry with Genl Lilyhman) in attending to the sick and wounded prisoners of war who are at this Hospital (60 in number)

As to my general Character and standing I can refer you to Lieut. Phil. T. Allin. of Col. Smith Lex. Regt. and John D. Dear Sir

I write to ask a favor of you though you probably do not recollect such an humble personage as myself yet I had the honor of being one of your escort in 62 from Ky to Dispatch and have only seen you once since when you made a speech one rainy day at Mayfield Graves Co. Ky. but to the point, I was arrested the 12th. day of last Dec. by the Lincolnites for giving aid and comfort to the Southern Army at Columbus and have been held as a prisoner ever since with no prospect of a release. And now I wish you to procure my appointment as Surgeon or Asst Surgeon in the Southern Army as in that case I could claim my release by parol or by exchange at some future time. I am really now acting as Asst. Surgeon in the Southern Cause as I am assisting Dr Voorhies (who was captured at Fort Henry with Gen.l Tilghman) in taking care of the sick and wounded prisoners of war who are in this Hospital. My appointment could be made out as an detached Service and as soon as I was released or exchanged I could report myself for duty at any point that would be desirable. if it could be possible it would be better to have the appointment dated previous to my arrest so that I could claim that I was a prisoner of war at that time. I have also written to Hon. H. C. Burnett who is well acquainted with me and knows that I am qualified for the position that I wish to occupy. Dr. Voorhies will also write to the

Mrs. Thad C. Jowitt

Hendersonville, North Carolina

Dear Mrs. Jowitt:

Reference is made to your letter of recent date, herewith returned.

The records show that Roswell S. Ripley, a Lieutenant Colonel of the 1st Regiment South Carolina Artillery, Confederate States Army, entered the service 2 January 1861 at Charleston Harbor, South Carolina, aged 33 years. The company muster roll for May and June 1861 shows him present.

The records also show that Roswell S. Ripley was appointed Brigadier General, Confederate States Army, from the State of South Carolina, 13 August 1861 to take rank same date and was assigned to the Department of South Carolina [redacted] Coast Defenses of South Carolina. By Special Order dated 14 February 1865, he was ordered to proceed to Columbia, South Carolina, and report to General G. T. Beauregard for assignment to duty. No later record of him has been found.

This collection of records is by no means complete, and failure to find the entire record of Confederate military service does not indicate necessarily that an individual did not serve at some period not covered by the records.

Sincerely yours,

In regard to arms for S. C. & the course to be pursued by that State.

Continental Hotel Phil.

November 7th. 1860.

My Dear Sir:

I Have intended to be in S. Carolina by this time, on the matter which I spoke to you about in Unionville last Spring, have been detained here unavoidably but hope to leave for Columbia either the last of this week or the first of next. By the last of November will do for the bill covering an Armory but what you want first is arms. My delay here has been partially on business of that nature, ~~enquiring~~ arising from letters from S. Carolina and Georgia, received some weeks since. I took immediate steps to get the information not only concerning this Country but abroad, and hope to be fully up by the time I start. Good arms are scarce in this Country outside of the National Arsenals, and for a rush we should have to go abroad. France will do as a Market but the Arms are not so good as English or others. Meantime there are about 15.000 Stand (altered) at Charleston. They are serviceable weapons, though not good, and should be looked to, that they are not taken from the State. Lincoln is elected beyond a doubt, and I suppose the matter will soon be settled. Should ~~it~~ be of use before I can get down to Columbia - a tele-vided the proposition meets with approbation, arrange the details of the plan during the period which must elapse before such legislative action as is necessary can be had. Should the Legislatures concur and give the requisite authority to the executives then to establish at some convenient point in one of these States and among capable of turning out from eight to twelve thousand stands of arms per annum of the standard Military patterns. To do this on a proper scale, it would be necessary to obtain contracts from each State, not exceeding in amount, fifty thousand dollars per annum for say five years, and patronage for a smaller sum for a short period thereafter, after, while the business it is believed could be safely left to itself and such encouragements as circumstances either at home or abroad might confer. The arms to be furnished would of course be up to a standard model to be determined upon and to be delivered at prices fixed by competent authority, and to be subject to the proper Military inspection, in parts, by State officers, those of each State to inspect the arms for that State. It is believed that the effect of this would be to establish the industry in the South and gradually locate there a number of artisans upon whom dependence could be placed in an emergency. It would also preclude the necessity of burdening models to be determined upon and to be delivered at prices fixed by competent authority, and to be subject to the proper military inspection, in part, by State officers, those of each State to inspect the arms for that State.

It is believed that the effect of this would be to establish the industry in the South and gradually create a number of artisans upon whom dependence could be placed in an emergency. It would also preclude the necessity of burdening each State with an extensive establishment dependent upon it for management by salaried officers, and moreover would require no expenditure by the State until its ratio would be required —

I have the honor to submit the following report of the daily occurrences of my command commencing on the 8th instant, on which day the enemy's iron-clad fleet appeared off the bar, and his force of transports at sea and in the Stono River was largely increased, indicating the renewal of the attack on the approaches of the City of Charleston. With the limited force at my command such measures as could be taken to guard the salient points of attack, the south end of Morris Island and James Island were ordered and directions given for the disposition of troops ordered by the Comdg General for reinforcements.

9th

On the 9th the enemy landed a strong force on Battery Island, and unmasked works on Little Folly bearing upon our positions at the south end of Morris. The works at that point were from various causes incomplete, and from want of transportation the arrival of reinforcements was tardy.

Endeavors were made to strengthen our position on Morris Island but from lack of force no great improvement was accomplished.

On the morning of the 10th the enemy opened a heavy fire upon our positions from Little Folly with [illegible] guns, [illegible] range guns which he had [illegible] in battery during the night. Some later four more batteries to the Northeast of the position, enfilading it and taking some of the batteries in reverse. Our troops defending were one brigade of the 1st S.C. Vols under Col W.D. Graham, two companies of the 1st S.C. Artillery under Captains J.C. Mitchell and J.R. Macbeth and a detachment of the 1st S.C. Infantry under Captain Charles T. Haskell, in all about seven hundred with the following Artillery placed in position in detached batteries along the shore to command the beach and the crossing from Little Folly, viz. three 8 inch Navy shell guns, Two 8 inch S.C. Howitzers, one rifled 24 prdr. one 30 prdr Parrot, one 42 prdr Whitworth and three 10 inch S.C. Mortars, in all eleven pieces.

There were on Morris Island besides two companies of Artillery, under Captains Chichester and Mathewes, the garrison of Battery Wagner, and one at Battery Gregg under Captain Lesesne, all the Artillery under Lt Col Jos A. Yates, 1st S.C. Artillery.

After about three hours furious shelling from the enemy's batteries to which our guns steadily replied, a large number of barges filled with troops came up Little Folly River, and under cover of their fire succeeded in effecting a landing on Oyster Point and the main shore of Morris Island. The enemy advanced immediately driving back our inferior force of Infantry and succeeded in expelling our troops from the south end of Morris Island and capturing the Artillery above named with its munitions.

This was not effected without a severe struggle in which we lost four hundred and ninety of the State; and none to be received only such as may have the sole ability be the Officers of the Federal Government.

I would not recommend that the State be bound to receive any arms which might not be of the kind or pattern which the Govern might at the time think most needful for the State.

The last Legislature of this State made provision for the appointment of one or more Commissioners to obtain information, statistics &c. relative to the establishment in this State of an Armory. I do not therefore feel at liberty to make an engagement which would bind the State to patronize an armory out of this State. If it can be ascertained what can be done which will secure the establishment of an Armory in this State, I will lay your proposition before the next Legislature with a recommendation that the State bind herself to purchase of you $50,000 worth of such arms as she may require each year for five years; to be paid for at the same price paid by the Federal Government for arms of the

Gov Brown & Maj. Ripley (Coby) Relating to Establishing Armory in one of the Cotton States

Executive Department
Milledgeville, Ga.
Oct. 2nd 1861

Dear Sir

I have examined your proposition to establish an Armory in either South Carolina, Georgia or Alabama, for the manufacture of "arms of standard military calibre." I feel much desire to see a first class armory established in Georgia or some one of the cotton states, and I incline to favor your proposition as it does not involve the idea in the act of constructing or seeking up the Armory. I only ask a pledge of liberal patronage for a reasonable time from each of the States above mentioned.

The last Legislature of this State made provision for the appointment of one or more Commissioners to obtain information, statistics &c. relative to the establishment in this State of an Armory. I do not therefore feel at liberty to make an engagement which would bind the State to patronize an Armory not of this State. If in your judgment some action can be had which will secure the establishment of an Armory in this State, I will lay your proposition before the next Legislature with a recommendation that the State bind herself to purchase of you $30,000 worth of such arms as she may need, each year for five years, to be paid for at the same price paid by the Federal Government for arms of the same finish and description, provided the arms are of the latest and most approved military pattern, and are manufactured in one of the States mentioned in your proposition. Returned to the Secretary of War, whose attention is requested to the cases referred without an opinion expressed as to the action he should direct should be taken.

Respectfully re-submitted to the President.

The papers are submitted with the recommendation & suggestion of my Staff, to know whether from a filing of delivery in the cases & the recommendation of the Genl Telegram for promotion, as in a grade in their Commission, I shall be by Law the power to fully promote on the papers thereof as to Genl — No additional suggestion of my part. Services as stated by my Staff officer by exhibiting them to Commanding and the Act passed at Brig Genl Drayton has by Law a Separate Command from whatever position he may be on. The rank of Major Genl has fixed a certain number and title of Commissions and from the Judgment and ability he may manifest to his Commanding Officer is promoted to Brig Genl Telegram from Brig Genl Drayton to Genl Beauregard dated Charleston Oct 6th 1863 stating that he had received Telegram from Genl Cooper dated Richmond Oct 5th 1863 stating that Genl Beauregard had been ordered to Command the Department of South Carolina Georgia & Florida and that Genl Drayton was assigned to the command of the District of Georgia and

Department of S.C., Ga & Fla
Charleston S.C., Oct 2nd 1863.

General,

Justice to my command, and a due regard to its efficiency induce me to ask for the promotion of the following officers:- namely-

Brigadier Generals Gilmore, Mercer and Taliaferro to be Major Generals-

Colonels L.M. Hatt and Alfred Rhett to be Brigadier Generals-

Lieut Col D. B. Harris to be Colonel of Provisional Engineers-

Major Stephen Elliott to be Lieut Colonel of Artillery-

Major Henry Bryan, A.A. Gen'l to be Lieut Colonel in the same Department-

Captains John M. Otey and Wm F. Nance, Asst Adjutants General, to be Majors in the same Department-

And Capt Chas S. Hill, on Ordnance duty, to be Major in the same or the Artillery branch of the service.

Lieut John Johnson to be a Captain of Provisional Engineers, vice Hamilton killed at Battery Wagner.

Lieut T. R. Edisalm A.D.C. to be Major.

It is known to the War Department that Brigadier General Ripley is the 6th or 7th Brigadier General in date of commission now in the service; he is an officer of unquestionable professional ability and attainments - an artillery officer of the largest experience, he has exercised a divisional command for nearly a year, and I believe his usefulness would be enhanced by this promotion.

General Mercer was educated at West Point is a man of ripe age and experience - is one of the senior Brigadiers in the service, and has been placed by the War Department in a responsible command - that of the defences of Savannah and District of Georgia - and with duties which it

General,

Since my report of the 23d detailing the operations in this command up to the 20th inclusive, the plan of the enemy's attack there stated seems to have been changed. There has been no attempt at a further assault upon our works on Morris Island. From the 21st to 24th there has been occasional firing both from the enemies fleet and land batteries but his time has chiefly been occupied in the erection and completion of three new batteries on that portion of the Island in his possession, thus advancing his lines as far as could be done with safety. On the 21st the enemy sent in by flag of truce a communication from Genl Gilmore with a request that the officer commanding Battery Wagner would give to Genl Wagner an accompanied it a personal letter. While Capt Young the Staff officer of Genl Hagood then in command was bearing the message brought by the flag, both the fleet and the land batteries suspended their fire and Genl Hagood Genl

322

He commanded there for the last 5 days during which we held it, and effected the evacuation. He has won his promotion by his zeal, courage and activity.

Col. Alfred Rhett commanded Fort Sumter until it became for the time useless as an artillery fortress. It is sufficient to say he did his duty with satisfactory intelligence and reputation, and deserves promotion.

As for Lieut Col D. B. Harris: in his claims to this step recommended, I feel assured Major General Gilmer, Chief of the Engineer Bureau, now here with command. Lieut Col Harris I found at Manassas, when I repaired there in June 1861. He was prominently engaged on all the defensive works constructed at Manassas and Centreville up to January 1862, when I selected him to accompany me, as my Chief Engineer, to the West. He built the works at Island N° 10 and Madrid Bend, much of the time being under fire of the Enemy's gun-boats. He is believed he could better discharge with increased rank.

Brigadier General Taliaferro commanded a division in the Army of Northern Virginia for some months, and is now in command of a sub-District - that of James Island - with three Brigadiers under him, and a command in responsibility quite equal to that of any Division in the service. He commanded on Morris Island on the occasion of the signal repulse of the Enemy in the assault on Battery Wagner on the 18th July, and has given me much satisfaction in the discharge of his duties.

Col L. M. Keitt is the senior Colonel of South Carolina troops in this Department. He has commanded on Morris Island more days than any other officer, and on occasions of the several bombardments to which Battery Wagner was subjected.

and resolute attention to his duties aided no little in the prolongation of the defence of Morris Island, and to [illegible] deserves [illegible]tion.

Lieut Johnson, during the several last operations of the Siege against Fort Sumter, was the Engineer of that work. It is sufficient to say that he showed himself equal to this position; was as full of resource and resolution as of energy, and evinced the highest qualities of the Military Engineer. All spoke in praise of his soldierly qualities and his professioal accomplishments.

Lieut A. R. Chisolm began service as a Volunteer Aid on my Staff in the outset of the Rebellion: he became subsequently one of my regular aids, with the rank of a first Lieutenant, the rank and position he now holds, after two years and a half constant service. He was with Keith to Morris Island as his Adjutant General. His intelligence and activity materially contributed towards the defence and final successful evacuation of the position of Battery Wagner.

Capt Otey has been on my Staff for more than two years; is a young man possessed of the best qualities of a staff officer - intelligent, experienced in Bureau duties; of military education and soldierly nature, and has earned promotion by his attention to his duties, and his superior knowledge of them. He was on my staff on the field at the battle of Shiloh.

Capt Nance has been the Chief Adjutant General of the 1st Military District - has served with unusual ability, and has deserved promotion by the industry and capacity with which he has discharged the duties entrusted to him.

Capt Stille's services have been conspicuously valuable as the Ordnance officer on Morris Island. His activity planned Fort Pillow in the condition to baffle the Enemy's gun-boats and prevent their passage. He planned and erected the greater part of the river works at Vicksburg - was Chief Engineer of Gen'l Bragg in his Kentucky campaign, and has been Chief Engineer here since Nov 1862. His record as an Engineer during this war, it seems to me, is without an equal for extent and responsibilities of service.

Major Stephen Elliott was selected by me as peculiarly fitted to command Fort Sumter. his conduct on the night of the 9th of Sept confirmed my expectations. his present position requires the rank, and I trust the Department will add to his usefulness by his promotion at least one grade.

Major Henry Bryan, on duty in this Department as an Ass't Inspector General, volunteered to accompany Col improperly refused to receive any communication until an apology had been made for this violation of the Flag. A satisfactory explanation having been offered and accepted, an interview was held between Genl Hagood & Genl Vogdes which terminated in an arrangement to exchange the wounded prisoners on both sides, and 10 o'clock on the following Friday appointed as the hour when the transports from each party should effect the exchange at the point from which the fleet have usually conducted the attack upon Battery Wagner.

On the morning of the 25th the day upon which the exchange was to be effected the enemy opened fire about daylight both from the fleet and land batteries.

This fire was vigorously sustained until the arrival about ten O'clock of the Flag of Truce Boat conveying the prisoners, and for a portion of that time was equal in intensity to the Bombardment of the 18th.

Upon the arrival of the boat in the neighbourhood of the place appointed, the firing ceased and the exchange was regularly effected, we delivering many such batteries as bear upon their working parts and lines. an attempt in which I have reason to think we have been to a considerable extent successful.

The condition of the new batteries is known to the Commanding Genl, and will be mentioned in the succeeding report.

The garrisons of Battery Wagner & Gregg have been relieved as regularly as possible with our means of transportation.

On the 22d Brig. Genl Taliaferro relieved Brig Genl Hagood — on the 26th Brig Genl Colquitt relieved Brig Genl Taliaferro, Brig Genl Colquitt was relieved on the 28th by Brig Genl Harrison and the last was relieved on the 1st of August by Col Rhett.

The fire from the land batteries of the Enemy upon Batteries Wagner and Gregg has been annoying & especially upon our communications by water between Fort Sumter and Cummins Point.

The casualties which have occured from the 21st to the 31st of July inclusive have been thirteen (13) Killed and forty nine (49) wounded — made in the arangement to the negro prison-of them were included in the exchange.

conduct it, have already been forwarded
The fire of the enemy on this morning especi-ally from one of the more advanced land batteries, armed with Parrott guns, did serious damage to Battery Wagner. The remaining ten inch Columbiad was dismounted from the sea face of the battery and the Magazine so much exposed that it became necessary to remove the ammuni-tion, and Lieut Taliaferro who had previo-usly relieved Lieut Hagood in the com-mand, anticipating a renewal of the bombardment upon the completion of the exchange of prisoners requested as a matter of prudent precaution that all necessary arrangements should be made for the transfer of the troops from the Island in case of necessity.
The exchange of prisoners was completed about 2 O'clock when the Flag of Truce boat relinquished.

The enemy however did not renew this attack and the time thus allowed was improved to the utmost in repairing the damage which had been done.
The condition of the battery as reported by Genl Taliaferro was submitted to the Genl Commanding and after full deliberation it was determined to hold it and instructions sent to Genl Taliaferro not to abandon the works without express orders to that effect.
From that date to the present the bombardment has never been renewed, although there has been occasional and brief fire upon the Battery from the Ironclads, in the mean time the battery has been thoroughly repaired and placed in a condition even superior to what it was in the beginning.
The enemy meanwhile are busily at work in improving their present works and erecting new ones of which our means of observation do not enable me to give a detailed account.
On our side new batteries have been erected and the work of completing them and mounting the necessary armament actively pressed, and every effort made to annoy the enemy by

My dear Sir,

In your late letter you have given me reason to expect a letter from you in reference to procuring Commissions in the Army of the United States, for any of us desiring to enter that service. Knowing myself of that effect, I take the liberty of asking you to give these to the use of a friend, who, although not a citizen of South Carolina, has nevertheless during the last two months & more, devoted himself with zeal, activity & her cause. I allude to Lt. R. S. Ripley - at present commanding at Ft. Moultrie. You are, yourself, sufficiently familiar with his services. We hear that a corps of artillery is to constitute a portion of any army, & Ripley in all points of claims & qualifications in it. of course, not of a general nature to that which he at present occupies - For my own part, speaking from a knowledge of the man, and of his experience & qualifications, I doubt whether we have among us any one who would fill the Chief Office in that respect better than himself.

The Office in a regular Service we be gaining but a little apprehension that in the general reorganization, they may be ignored. How is this liable? in consideration of the fact that the are now actually serving the govt. of the Confed. States, it would seem that simple justice demands that their claims should be considered favorably.

Gen. Beauregard, as you may have already heard, anticipates an attack on Ft. S. with insufficient land & sea forces, & is making up said sum with earth works.

I am, dear Sir
very respectfully & truly yours

General,

I consider it advisable not to open fire with the works about Shell Point until entirely completed - Otherwise the return fire of the Enemy will compel us to work upon them only at night, thereby delaying them.

A vigorous and constant fire with guns & Mortars should be kept up on the Enemys works (especially at and about Wagner Hill) from Wagner, Gregg and Sumter - No way of annoying them should be omitted - even sorties at night to fill up their rifle pits, spike their guns &c should be resorted to whenever the night will favor such operations.

Sir

I have the honor to apply for the commission of Colonel or of Lieut-Colonel of Artillery in the Army of the Confederate States of America. I mention the second rank as I do not wish an application or claim of mine to interfere with those of an officer who has seen more active service in the Artillery arm than myself.

I do not wish the application to have such effect if considered, as to take me from the performance of the duties which I am now fulfilling, until the present necessity shall have been satisfied - viz - the command of the Artillery of the State of South Carolina — nor to interfere with those duties which devolved upon me in my present capacity, before the Confederate States were formed. I see nothing which could interfere —

I beg to refer the result of the Examination of the Military Academy & have the honor to request that this application be laid before the President —

Brig Gen Ripley

Upon my return hither from the army on a short leave I heard that you had been assigned to the command of the Dept of Charleston. Permit me as an old friend to suggest to you one or two points which may be of service during the fall & Winter months during the campaigning is over & we have breathing time for a time. We have learnt the enemy beyond the Potomac under Lee made a raid into Maryland; fought & beaten & gained nationally, but I fear that we have lost in the moral effect on the world by our being obliged by circumstances to evacuate

304

Maryland. Heavens all that remains to be developed. Lee can hardly bring Mc Clellan to battle & Mc Clellan can hardly bring Lee to battle for some time to come.

If there is an application for service under you in Florida I should be glad to avail myself of it & relinquish my post to you.

I would not like the defences of Charleston to go by without being in it as we had such good results formerly I really hope that should we be associated again we should be as fortunate.

The S Carolina & Georgia delegation have informed me that they concur with the assignment in your Department, & if I am appointed were made. There is no doubt that the island would be vacated speedily.

Should it meet with your views an intimation to this purport authorizing would be effectual.

My Brigade in the field is now under Col. Doles of the 4th Georgia one of the oldest Colonels in the service & who deserves promotion & that no injustice could accrue on that score.

Should you make the application please inform me.

I shall start for duty in a few days.

HEAD QUARTERS,
Department of South Carolina, Ga. & Fla.

Charleston, S.C. Feby 7th 1863.

General:

Some time since I recommended Col L. M Keitt, 20th Regiment S.C Volunteers for promotion, giving my reasons therefor in an endorsement on a communication from him dated the 13th December. I have now further to ask respectfully the promotion of Brig Gen'l Ripley as Major General and Col C. H. Stevens as Brigadier General believing the promotion of these gentlemen not only as due to their long and valuable services, but as calculated to widen their spheres of usefulness.

Col Stevens has no superiors as the Colonel of the troops from South Carolina now at Wilmington and deserves promotion for his zeal as well as his capacity.

Brig General Ripley is as you are aware, one of the senior Brigadiers in the service rendered invaluable service in the outset of this contest in the reduction of Ft Sumter and held important commands in the battles and combats before Richmond and in the Maryland Campaign in the course of which he was wounded. His present command as important if not more so than is now entrusted to any Major General in the service. He is daily giving the Country and myself the benefit of his administrative talent and resources, and of his untiring energy and zeal in the discharge of his duties as Commander of the 1st Military District of South Carolina, embracing all the works for the defence of the City and Harbour of Charleston. In numbers his command is that of a Major General.

I must also ask that Henry C. Wayne, at present Adjutant & Inspector General of the State of Georgia, may be appointed a Brigadier General, for service in the defence of Savannah. You are fully acquainted with Gen'l Wayne's capacity and professional culture. He is an Artillery officer of experience and study, of good judgment and, I feel assured, would render material assistance to Gen'l Mercer, both in the work of preparation for, and during any attack on the lines of Savannah. The services of some officer of at least capacity I regard as vital to the defence of that City. Indeed I should feel more assured could I also secure the services of Brig Gen'l Bowen now under Gen'l Pemberton. I believe the closest friend I am informed, of the Gen'l Bowen I believe had much experience in the erection of the extensive fortifications at Bowling Green, and has acquired that knowledge of defensive lines which would make him a valuable officer at Savannah.

As the Enemy is now concentrating his forces evidently at Port Royal, it may be fairly presumed some considerable operation may be attempted at an early day, within this limits of the Dep't. I must therefore, be excused for requesting the earliest possible action on this communication.

I am authorized to say, that should the appointment accept the appointment I have requested for him.

Respectfully,

Brig Gen Taliaferro who had been in command and on trench duty for five days was relieved in the morning by Brig Gen Hagood.

This report ending with the ~~repulse~~ repulse of the enemy from Battery Wagner, will be continued from that time, on the operations of the enemy from that date within the limits of my command have changed their character.

In closing it I have the honor to express my high appreciation of the distinguished services of Brig Gen Taliaferro, who commanded the troops in Battery Wagner with great ability and gallantry and repulsed the memorable assault of the 18th. of the excellent conduct of Brig Generals Hagood and Colquitt as evinced in the attack on the enemy's position on the 16th. Besides these Col Graham 21st S.C.V. Col Kempton 7th Ga Regts on the Extra Battalions, Lieut Col Yates, Capt J.C. Mitchell, Capt Lesesne, Lieut Col F.D. Lee, Lieut Col Willard Charleston Battalion, Lieut Col Yates, Capt J.C. Mitchell, Capt Lesesne, 1st S.C. Artillery, Captains Chichester and Mathews deserve special consideration for their gallant and valuable services, (Capt Butler and Lieut Dixon -

The Signal Corps under Lieut Martin have been actively employed, and that officer has reported Sergeant J.C. Edgerton and Privates W.S. Lawrence, E.H. Martin, W.D. Du Barry, F. Trimball and F.A. I have to acknowledge the services of Major J Watts Middleton upon my personal staff.

The limits of this report are such that it may be that many things are omitted which should be mentioned to the credit of many meritorious officers, and these I will endeavor to mention in a supplement.

Accompanying are the reports of Col R. L. Graham of the action of the 10th inst. and of the assault on the morning of the 11th inst; of Brig Gen Taliaferro of the operations of the troops on Morris Island from the 13th to the 19th inst inclusive; of Brig Gen Hagood of the engagement with the enemy pickets on James Island, and with the Swamper in the Stono; of Lieut Mauker Signal Officer, and of all subordinate Commanders. I also enclose tabular lists of the killed, wounded and missing and list of captured prisoners captured during the period covered by this report

The work of repair and preparation was proceeded with during the night and at daylight on the 18th the enemy's land and sea batteries opened a fierce fire upon the devoted work. The practice was rapid in the extreme from the Ironsides, from the Monitors and from all the wooden gun-boats which without exposing themselves, could get the range. According to Brig Gen. Taliaferro's estimate over nine thousand shot and shell were thrown, but as if by the special interposition of Providence our loss was slight. Indications of an assault at dusk were apparent, and the guns of Sumter and Battery Gregg were in preparation to open fire over Battery Wagner on the columns of the enemy. Brig Gen Hagood was relieved from the command of James Island to be in readiness to support or relieve Brig Gen Taliaferro, and Col Harrison's 32d Regt of Georgians proceeded to the reinforcement and relief of the garrison. While in passage the assault commenced, which was bravely met and repulsed with terrific slaughter on the part of the enemy by the heroic garrison, and its no less heroic commander. Brig Gen Taliaferro may [illegible] all the operations [illegible] In his report the details of the assault and its repulse are set forth, and I cannot do more or better than to second his commendations of those brave officers and men who stood the tempest of shot and shell, and sent back the columns of the enemy from their work with a loss which may safely be computed at about three thousand in killed, wounded and prisoners. (Brig Gen Hagood with Col Harrison's Regt assisted in the final repulse of a party who had made a lodgment in the south eastern salient of the Battery.)

about three thousand in killed, wounded and prisoners. Brig Gen Gagood with Col Harrison's Regt assisted in the final repulse of a party who had made a lodgment in the south eastern salient of the Battery.

The carnage of the enemy in the confined space in front of the Fort Wagner was extreme. The ditch and glacis were encumbered with the slain of all ranks and colors, for the enemy had put the poor negroes whom they had forced into an unnatural service in front to be, as they were, slaughtered indiscriminately. The white Colonel who commanded them fell with many officers of the Regiment the 54th Massachusetts, and the colors under which they were sent to butchery by hypocrisy and inhumanity fell draggled in blood and sand, in the ditch, a mournful memorial of the waste of cruelty.

This result was not accomplished without a loss on our part of brave officers and men, though of those who in this struggle battled for the right, the proportion who fell was far less than that of their enemy.

In this engagement our loss in killed, wounded and missing was one hundred and seventy four. Among the officers whose loss we have to lament, and whose position and services entitle them to especial mention were Lt Col J.C. Simkins of the 1st S.C. Infantry, Capt Wm H. Ryan, Charleston Battalion, Capt W J Saturn 1st S.C. Infantry who were killed, and Major David Ramsay of the Charleston Battalion who was severely wounded. Other gallant officers and soldiers fell, whose names are mentioned in the reports of their several commanders, and whose memories should be cherished by a grateful country.

While the assault on Battery Wagner was progressing, Battery Gregg under Captain Leesene and the Batteries of Fort Sumter under Col Alfred Rhett kept up a continuous fire upon the ground over which the enemy advanced, until Brig Gen Talliaferro advanced his pickets to the front, when they four killed, wounded and missing, among whom I mention with especial regret the following officers Captains Chevet and Haskell and Lieut Bee - who had rendered important service previous to, and behaved with distinguished gallantry in the engagement.

The first reinforcements, Nelsons 7th Battn S.C. Vols arrived at the close of the action and could only assist in covering the retreat which was made under the flank fire of the Monitors to Battery Wagner where our troops were formed to resist further advance, and the guns of which opened on the pursuing enemy. Fort Sumter and Battery Gregg also opened fire and put a stop to their proceedings for the day.

On the evening Battery Wagner was reinforced by Col Edmunds command of Georgia troops and the garrison kept on the alert for defending it against an attack, this occurred at dawn on the 11th when the enemy advanced upon the work in two columns, and made a desperate assault which was gallantly and decidedly repulsed with a loss to the enemy which may be safely estimated at over eight hundred men. Our ranging parties interred over one hundred inside of our lines, and one hundred and thirty were taken prisoners.

Our loss was one officer and five privates killed, and one officer and five privates wounded.

On the twelfth Brig Genl Ripley took command of the positions on James Island. Brig Gen Taliaferro was assigned to the command of the works on Morris Island. The armament of the fort was increased by four 12 pds Howitzers under Capt De Pass and Lieut Watiet, and two thirty two pounder Carronades on Siege Carriages. The enemies shot took effect on the steam scow Maniganlt lying at a partially constructed battery at Vincents creek disabling the scow and scattering the workmen. Battery Wagner was shelled during the day by the enemy's fleet continously during the day.

One Monitor took a position to the northward apparently to enfilade the rear of the work, Lieut Col Yates ordered Battery Gregg to open rapidly, which it did during the Monitor off, apparently severely injured as she transferred her crew at once to one of the gun-boats.

13th. On the 13th under the able supervision of Brig Gen Taliaferro continued preparations were made against a renewed attack. The 21st S.C.V and two companies of the 1st S.C. Artillery were relieved by the 31st North Carolina, and a detachment of Georgia Artillery under Capt Burchmer. The land operations of the enemy consisted in erecting batteries and protections in which they were interrupted by the fire from Fort Sumter and Battery Gregg. The gun-boats and Monitors kept up a continued shelling throughout the day with but slight intermission, when they had suffered from the fire of the sea fronts of Wagner and Gregg. In the evening the enemy succeeded in setting fire to the wreck of the steam scow Maniganlt in Vincents Creek.

During the night Brig Gen Taliaferro threw out a Party one hundred and fifty strong under Major Rion of the 7th S.C. Battalion which drove in the enemy's pickets from his rifle pits extending across the Island about ¾ of a mile from Battery Wagner back upon his main supports inflicting a considerable loss with but small upon our front.

15th. On the 15th the enemy landed troops in force on Morris Island and there were indications of a renewal of the assault on the fort. The frigate Ironsides had crossed the bar on the night of the 14th. During the day the enemy was strengthening his position, our troops being engaged in repairing damages, replying to the enemy's Monitors and gun-boats, and replying to the enemy's sharp shooters. The Charleston Battalion under Lieut Col H. C. Gaillard relieved the 7th Battalion and three Companies of the 20th Regt S.C.V. Lieut Col J.C. Simkins 1st S.C. Infantry relieved Lieut Col J. Brig Gen Hagood made a reconnoissance of the enemy in his front on James Island.

On the morning of the 16th in accordance with instructions, Brig Gen Hagood advanced against the enemy from his Head Quarters near Secessionville James Island, driving in the enemy's pickets on his left, and making an advance against that portion of their forces. Brig Gen Hagood made a reconnoissance of the enemy in his front on James Island.

On the morning of the 16th in accordance with instructions, Brig Gen Hagood advanced against the enemy from his Head Quarters near Secessionville James Island, driving in the enemys pickets on his left, and making an advance against that portion of their forces. Two columns made the attack, one led by Brig Gen R H Colquitt, and the other by Brig Gen. Hagood in person. The enemy was protected by the fire of his gun boats in Stono and Little Folly Rivers. Brig Gen Hagood succeeded in driving the enemy about two thousand in number, from James Island, and inflicting upon him a serious loss in killed and wounded, capturing fourteen negroes belonging to the 54th Massachusetts Regiment. Not the least important of these operations, was the engagement with the Sloop of War Pawnee by two sections of Napoleon guns under command of Colonel Del Kemper in which the steamer was injured and forced to retire. Gen Hagoods loss was three killed, twelve wounded and three missing. The enemy withdrew entirely from James Island to Battery Island, when Gen Hagood advanced his pickets and the ground has been held to the present date 22d July.

At Battery Wagner and on Morris Island our troops continued their works of repair subject to a continued shelling from gunboats and Monitors at long range.

17th On the 17th the enemy vessels all disappeared from the Stono, and his troops were concentrated on Little Folly and Morris Islands. Firing from the enemys fleet and land batteries was kept up during the day on Battery Wagner, which interfered seriously with the transportation to Cummins Point. This has had ever since to be carried on at night. On the night of the 17th the 31st N.C. Regiment relieved Col Olmsteads command of Georgia troops and Capt Cowans Company of the 21st S.C. Vols.

Major R.S. Ripley to Gov. Gist. Encloses copies of letters of Govs. Bryan & Moore relative to manufactory of Arms.

Charleston S.C.
March 6th 1861.

Sir:

I beg leave to inform your Excellency that in the progress of the business which I brought to your notice in March last, I have to enclose herewith copies of letters received by me from their Excellencies the Governors of Alabama and Georgia.

I shall communicate further with you as the occasion passes.

April 3rd 1860.

Dear Sir

I have examined your proposition to establish a Foundry in either South Carolina Georgia or Alabama for the manufacture of "arms of standard military patterns". I very much desire to see a first class Armory established in Georgia or some one of the cotton States, and I incline to favor your proposition as it does not involve the state in the cost of constructing or keeping up the Foundry. You only ask a pledge of liberal patronage for a reasonable time from each of the states above mentioned.

The last legislature of this state made provision for the appointment of one or more commissioners to obtain information, statistics &c relative to the establishment in this State of an Armory. I do not therefore feel at liberty to make an engagement which would bind the State to patronize an Armory out of this State. If in my judgement some better plan is not suggested which will secure the establishment of an Armory in this state, I will lay your proposition before the next legislature with a recommendation that the state bind herself to purchase of you $50,000 worth of such arms as she may desire each year for five years. To be paid for at the same price paid by the Federal Government per Arms of the same finish and description, provided the arms are of the latest and most approved military patterns, and are manufactured in one of the States mentioned in your proposition. The arms to be inspected by a competent military officer appointed by this state, and none to be received only such as will stand the tests applied by the officers of the Federal Government.

I would not recommend that the state be bound to receive any arms which might not be of the kind or pattern which the Governor might at the time think most needed by the State.

Yours very respy
